OUR WONDERFUL INSTRUCTORS

DARLENE NEWELL

Flower Show Procedure and Horticulture
Topics Cut Specimen Narcissus and Container-grown Calathea

Darlene Newell, a retired nurse and nursing home administrator, is a NGC Master Flower Show Judge, Horticulture, Flower Show Procedure, and Symposium Instructor and Daffodil Judge.

She is a life member of WVGC and NGC and a member of the American Horticulture, Hosta, and Daffodil Societies. She serves on the NGC Board of Directors on the Handbook Exam committee and on the state level as the WV Flower Show Chairman.

In 2001, she founded the annual Community Thanksgiving Meal Project. To date, hundreds of volunteers have provided over 20,000 hot meals on Thanksgiving Day.

Special interests include growing plants from seeds, gardening with her five grandchildren, and creating stained glass and concrete projects.

MADELYN HUCKER

Design

Topics Traditional Line, Traditional Line-Mass, and Traditional Mass.

Madelyn Hucker, a Master Judge, is a member of her local garden club, 3 design study groups, the National Association of Floral Arrangers and World Association of Floral Artists. She stays active designing for meetings and conventions and was a participant in WFA's first American hosted World Flower Show in Boston, 2011 and the 11th World Flower Show 2014 in Dublin, Ireland.

Madelyn enjoys teaching design courses around the country and getting to know local culture and design styles. She also presents hands-on design workshops, providing tips on florist mechanics and highlighting new NGC designs.

Madelyn loves making "something out of nothing" and is a strong advocate for repurposing materials. If it is discarded, artful uses can be found.

She and her husband enjoy traveling, photography, gardening and scuba diving.
