OUR FABULOUS INSTRUCTORS

Jan Griffin, Florida

Flower Show Procedure; Horticulture: Coleus & Japanese Maples

Jan Griffin is an NGC accredited master flower show judge, an NGC horticulture, flower show procedure and NGC symposium Instructor. Her theory for all designers is that you need great horticulture for great design. Jan has served as horticulture chairman for four state flower shows and several districts shows as well as chairman of a yearly local Strawberry Festival Horticulture Show. One of her favorite past-times is working in her friend's florist shop creating beauty for others.

Cathy Waitinas, Tennessee and Traditional Mass and Line Design

Cathy Waitinas is a National Garden Club Master Accredited Flower Show Judge and Design Instructor. She is a member of Arrissa Garden Club and Garden Guild Garden Clubs, Creative Floral Arrangers of the Americas, and the Society of American Florists. Cathy taught school and spent 30+ years in the nuclear industry in safety and technical writing. She and her husband, Jerry, live out in the country near Oliver Springs, Tennessee. Cathy enjoys carpentry projects and giving Design programs.

Flower Show School is a comprehensive program that teaches all you need to know about judging, entering, competing, and chairing an NGC Flower Show. There are 4 courses each with a specific curriculum that includes horticulture, design, and flower show procedure (FSP). If you are considering becoming a flower show judge, planning to chair a flower show, or simply want to learn more, come to Flower Show School. gardenclub.org
